RAMSEY &amp; JONES.

A THOUGHTFUL MAN.
M. M. Austin of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c, at The Penn Drug Store.

Working Overtime
Eight hour laws are ignored by those tireless, little workers—Dr. King's New Life Pills. Millions are always at work, night and day, curing indigestion, biliousness, constipation, Sick Headache and all Stomach, Liver, and bowels trouble. Easy, pleasant, safe, sure. Only 25c, at The Penn Drug Store.

RAMSEY &amp; JONES.

Death of an Aged Citizen.
After a sojourn of nearly three score and ten years Mr. Elijah Dorn passed away at his home near Celestia, Saluda county, on the 13th inst. He was probably the oldest surviving member of this honest and sturdy pioneer family. Mr. Dorn was a life and was a great lover of home only going beyond the confines of his immediate neighborhood when urgent business required it. He had made peace with his God and in his dying moments significantly declared and gave his testament to be ushered into the presence of his Maker. The deceased was twice married, being survived by his second wife and sixteen children. The interment took place on Wednesday last in the presence of a large and not far distant from where he was born and reared.

The Tent Meeting.
Rev. R. A. Sublett, the evangelist, and his faithful co-laborer, Mr. Durham, who conducts the singing, arrived on Saturday afternoon and have been holding very interesting services in the open house. The large tent, expected to arrive on every train, is expected to arrive on every train, being delayed while in transit. Rev. Mr. Sublett has been very successful wherever he has been and in the people of our community will do their part of a great revival of the old time religion can be had here in Edgefield. We need such a meeting. Attend every service and urge others to go. When the tent arrives it will be erected on the lot at the end of the railroad track, being convenient to everybody who desires to attend. Why not have a tent meeting in Edgefield like the one held in 1886? We can, if we will.

A Building Boom.
It seems that we will not much longer have a dearth of houses in Edgefield. Already plans have been drawn and contracts let for some, and there are rumors of others yet to be contracted for. We have been reliably informed that Mr. C. W. Spencer has closed contracts for the immediate erection of ten residences. It is generally conceded that building fever spreads like contagion, consequently when some of our citizens build houses for their own use and for rent, it will cause others to do likewise. Once the ball has been set in motion it is probable that before many months no prospective new comers will lack for a house. Hasten the day!

Fourth Quarterly Conference.
The fourth Quarterly Conference of the Edgefield circuit will be held in the Edgefield Methodist church on Saturday and Sunday next. Rev. J. S. Beasley, the presiding elder of Columbia district will preach both Saturday and Sunday morning. The business session of the Conference will be held Saturday afternoon. A full representation is desired, and the fact that Rev. Mr. Beasley is to preach assures a large attendance upon the devotional exercises. On former visits to Edgefield Rev. Mr. Beasley has been warmly greeted by large congregations.

We buy buggies in car lots is why we can sell them so cheap. All styles of Beacock, Tyson & Jones, Rock Hill and dozens of other reliable makes of buggies always on hand.

RAMSEY &amp; JONES.

Nothing is nicer for the table these early autumn days than Maccaroni and Cheese. We carry the delightful CREAM CHEESE that this store has always been famous for.

THE PENN DRUG STORE.

Jas. M. Cobb is showing something new and stylish in Ladies Dress Goods.

Second-Hand School Books.
We have good stock of second-hand school books which we are selling at greatly reduced prices.

W. E. LYNCH &amp; CO.

Nothing would add so greatly to the beauty and comfort of your home as new matting spread up on your floors. We have a very large supply of matting in all of the latest colors and patterns, also beautiful linoleum for the hall. Prices very low.

RAMSEY &amp; JONES.

Fresh assortment of fancy cakes and crackers just received. Try them.

THE PENN DRUG STORE.

MORPHINE.
Why Remain a Slave When You Can Be Cured at Home.

An absolute, permanent and painless home cure for Morphine, Cocaine, Laudanum, Opium and other drug habits is guaranteed those following instructions. Our treatment is very simple and can be taken without the knowledge or assistance of other persons. ## TOWN TOPICS

Timely, Tersely, Truly Told To The Thinking Thousands

The November term of court convenes on the third Monday.

Contractor Spencer is now on the home-stretch with the brick work of the college building.

Mr. L. W. Cheatam is in attendance upon the United States court in Greenville as a grand juror.

Let the Advertiser print some visiting cards for you. We have beautiful new type and cards of the latest style.

Mr. Henry Hughes Hill and Miss Stella Walker spent Sunday at Ridge Spring, visiting Miss Coy Wood and other friends.

Miss Lillian Smith who is teaching a flourishing school at Roper's spent Saturday and Sunday under the parental roof.

De 'simmons am'er ripenit', de 'possums am'er fattenit', de horns am'er blowin', de dogs am'er barkin' and de 'coons am'er happy.

Miss Helen Sheppard has returned after spending the summer in the mountains, and visiting her aunt in Greenville.

The Advertiser helps your business, now help the Advertiser by giving us your printing. We take no money for it unless you are perfectly satisfied.

"The Professor's Love Story" is the name of a play that is making a bit before the footlights. Whose love story is it, Capt. Cain's or Prof. Entzinger's?

Miss Heatie Sheppard accompanied Mrs. C. E. May and little Margaret went to Augusta on Sunday afternoon, returning on Monday afternoon.

Some very fine sweet potatoes are being sold on our streets at seventy-five cents per bushel. That's a living price for the producer if not for the consumer.

Dr. F. W. P. Butler spent Sunday in Columbia with Mrs. Butler. The latter will return to Edgefield the latter part of this week after spending the summer in the mountains.

Col. F. N. K. Bailey has been truck farming this year on a large scale and he is now profiting by it. His tables are daily supplied with vegetables, etc. of his own making.

Supreme Dictator J. C. Sheppard is spending this week in Baltimore, New York and Boston in the interests of the Knights of Honor, of which order he is the highest official.

Mrs. Lizzie H. Folk, accompanied by little Julia, went to Gainesville Ga., on Wednesday last, where she will spend sometime, hoping that the latter's health will be benefited by the change.

At his own request Prof. W. P. Coker was granted a letter of dismission from the Edgefield Baptist church on Sunday last, and will unite with the church at Weldon N. C., where he is teaching.

Miss Mary Holston left Monday morning for Red Hill to enter upon her duties as assistant teacher in the large school of that prosperous community. She will board at the home of Mr. Thomas who resides near the school building.

Mr. Thomas Carson, a nephew of Gen. M. C. Butler, who was a former student of the S. C. C. I., spent several days in Edgefield last week. Mr. Carson is engaged in the railway service and is stationed at Concord, N. C.

For three consecutive years Mose township has had the distinction of being the first to pay state and county taxes. On Thursday last, the first man to come forward and pay his taxes was that sterling citizen Mr. J. Nick Griffin, of the Cleora section.

Miss Virginia Addison leaves on Friday to attend the marriage of Miss Jennie Addison and Mr. J. E. Arthur, of Ninety-Six, which will be solemnized on Wednesday evening next at the home of the bride. Miss Virginia will go via Columbia where she will stop several days with friends.

Mr. J. Berrien Walker, after an absence of three months from our town, was warmly greeted by his many friends on Sunday last. Mr. Walker is travelling, in the interests of large clothing manufacturers of Philadelphia, and he will be at home but little during the next three months.

The very practical sermon, so earnestly and impressively delivered by Rev. C. E. Burt on Sunday morning last from the text, "Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in heaven," has been declared by many to have been the ablest ever delivered in their hearing.

During former years the students of the S. C. C. I., were allowed to go upon the streets on an hour of every day of the week, but this session their general leave has been restricted, as is the case with most military schools, to Friday afternoon. While our people are always glad to see the bright and happy faces of the students on our streets, doubtless this new regulation is better for them, for they have more time to devote to their studies and military duties.

Mr. James B. Adams was among the visitors to our town on Monday from the lower section of Edgefield county. While en route to Edgefield he passed the corps of surveyors who are locating the line for the North Augusta county. They began on the Savannah river about a mile below Mocco, and had reached the Martintown road some distance north of Dr. J. N. Crawford's. The advocates of the new county are up and doing, but it is by no means certain that their efforts will profit them anything, for "there's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip."

Cadet Garrison of Colleton county who recently entered upon his senior year as a student of the S. C. C. I., has accepted a position as teacher of mathematics in the Baptist Association school of Clyde N. C., at a salary of $50 per month. Since coming among us Mr. Garrison has been recognized a young man of unusual intellectual endowment, and his record in mathematics during last session showed him to be a genius in this particular line. It will be remembered that at the last commencement he was awarded the medal for the best original essay. Being chosen for this position is a compliment to this worthy young man and to the S. C. C. I., under whose tutelage he has been.

Mrs. W. S. Cottrill, of Abbeville, accompanied by her two little children, is spending several days at the ideal country home of Mr. D. B. Hollingsworth.

Capt. S. M. Rice spent Friday in Columbia on business pertaining to his duties as conductor. Capt. Lawson, of the main line, punched tickets in Capt. Rice's absence.

Miss Carrie Morgan, of Mocco, who is boarding with Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Glover and attending the S. C. C. I., spent Saturday and Sunday at home. She was accompanied by Mrs. A. A. Glover who visited her sister, Mrs. P. R. Bates.

Miss Julia V. Tompkins, accompanied by pretty little Miss Ruth Strom spent Saturday and Sunday in Edgefield with the home folks. Her many friends greeted her very cordially. Miss Julia is delighted with her position as teacher at the home of Hon. W. A. Strom.

There was quite a large number representative citizens from all over the county on our streets on Monday. Indeed, we do not remember to have seen so many leading citizens from every section of the county when there was no public occasion to attract them hither.

Rev. C. E. Burt had his horse and buggy driven from Blackville last week. Having a nice turnout always at his command, will greatly facilitate in the matter of pastoral visiting, especially among those who reside several miles from his church.

Superintendent G. R. Spencer and family, and Contractor C. W. Spencer and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Friday, the parents of Mrs. C. W. Spencer, have rented and moved into the large residence of Mrs. V. C. Addison, near the Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ozuz are now comfortably ensconced in their cozy cottage home near the Griffin hill, which they recently purchased from M. P. Wells, Esq., Mr. Thomas, who vacated the house for Mr. Ozuz's, has removed to the Bennett house near the Presbyterian church.

Mr. John B. Davis began at the bottom round with the Southern about two years ago and now he is Capt. Davis, conductor of the quarry train. This shows what perseverance and faithful performance of every duty will do for a young man. Messrs. J. L. Addison and J. E. Mims are also members of Capt. Davis' crew.

Mrs. Foreman, Miss Annie Foreman and Mrs. H. H. Stembridge returned to Ellenton on Thursday last after spending the summer with Mesdames C. J. Ashley and M. E. Merriman. These good ladies were charmed with Edgefield and it was with reluctance that they returned to their home which is not far from the malaria infested region.

At the close of the regular weekly prayer meeting at the Baptist church on Wednesday evening last, which was very largely attended, Mrs. Mamie Warren and Miss Ina Hill united with the church. The former was a member of old Mt. Tabor church before it was abandoned and the latter presented herself for baptism. The ordinance of baptism will be administered at an early day.

The rainy season will soon set in and the ladies should make ready for it. The Corner Store advertises this week all of the latest materials for rainy-day skirts. While in the north Mr. W. H. Turner selected these goods with his own hands which is a guarantee that the style and quality are right. Ladies, read Mr. Turner's advertisement.

The farmers of the Meeting Street section, like those of other sections adjacent to Edgefield, prove their faith in our cotton market by their works. On Thursday last a procession of wagons from several of the farmers around Meeting Street brought thirty bales of cotton to Edgefield, and were paid the top of the market for the lot. Is there any wonder then that nearly all the cotton grown north of Edgefield is sold on our market.

While en route to Edgefield he passed the corps of surveyors who are locating the line for the North Augusta county. ## THE OLD RELIABLE

Absolutely Pure.

THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

After looking over the intelligence of the death of Mr. Geo. D. Tillman of Bright's disease has reached us. We regret that we cannot make a fuller announcement. The Advertiser extends sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mr. John R. Tompkins, the popular and efficient cashier of the Edgefield Manufacturing Company, has closed a contract with Mr. C. W. Spencer to erect a modern and very beautiful cottage on the lot opposite the residence of Mr. H. A. Smith, which he recently purchased from Mrs. E. N. DeVore. Upon this hangs a tale, and it is easy to read between the lines, it being significant for a handsome bachelor to erect a handsome home.

We have been requested to announce to the patrons of the Kindergarten school that they can send their little ones on Monday next. The school will be conducted as last year at the home of Mrs. Kate Vims. Let the little ones be on hand on the opening day. When they enter later they are placed at a great disadvantage and the work is made much harder for the teacher.
